

FREEDOM ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Community News

May 25, 2018

Student Art Exhibit

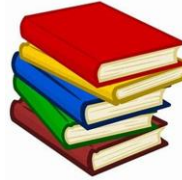

Friday, June 15th, 5-8 p.m.

Freedom Gallery in the Village

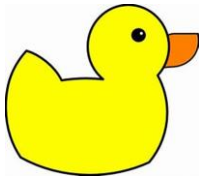

Come view our talented student artists and enjoy some refreshments.

Believe in Books Book Drive

It's not too late to add to our collection of books for the book drive. The school that collects the most gently used books during the month of May wins a $100 grant to get new books for the school's library.

Ducky Day

Ducky Day is June 30th at the Mill Pond in Freedom Village. Events begin at 9 a.m., with the Rubber Ducky Race at noon. We'll send out more information soon, but note that tickets can be purchased around town now.

There will be no tennis next week. Ms. Lee will be away at Sargent Camp with sixth-graders.

The Freedom PTO minutes are in the office for anyone interested.

Upcoming Events

~Monday, May 28th,
Memorial Day, No
School

~Friday, June 8th, PTO,
8:15 a.m.

~Friday, June 8th, All-
School Field Trip to Story Land

~Wednesday, June
13th, Field Day

~Monday, June 18th,
Kindergarten
Celebration, 11 a.m.

~Monday, June 18th,
Sixth-Grade
Graduation, 6 p.m.

~ Freedom Public
Library's Summer
Reading Kick-Off
Party, 2 p.m., at
Freedom Elementary
School; Yo-Yo Guy John
Higby to perform

Information contained in this newsletter from other organizations is not necessarily endorsed by the administration or staff of Freedom Elementary School. You are highly encouraged to investigate these organizations on your own.